Dedication: Miss Anne Shipwash

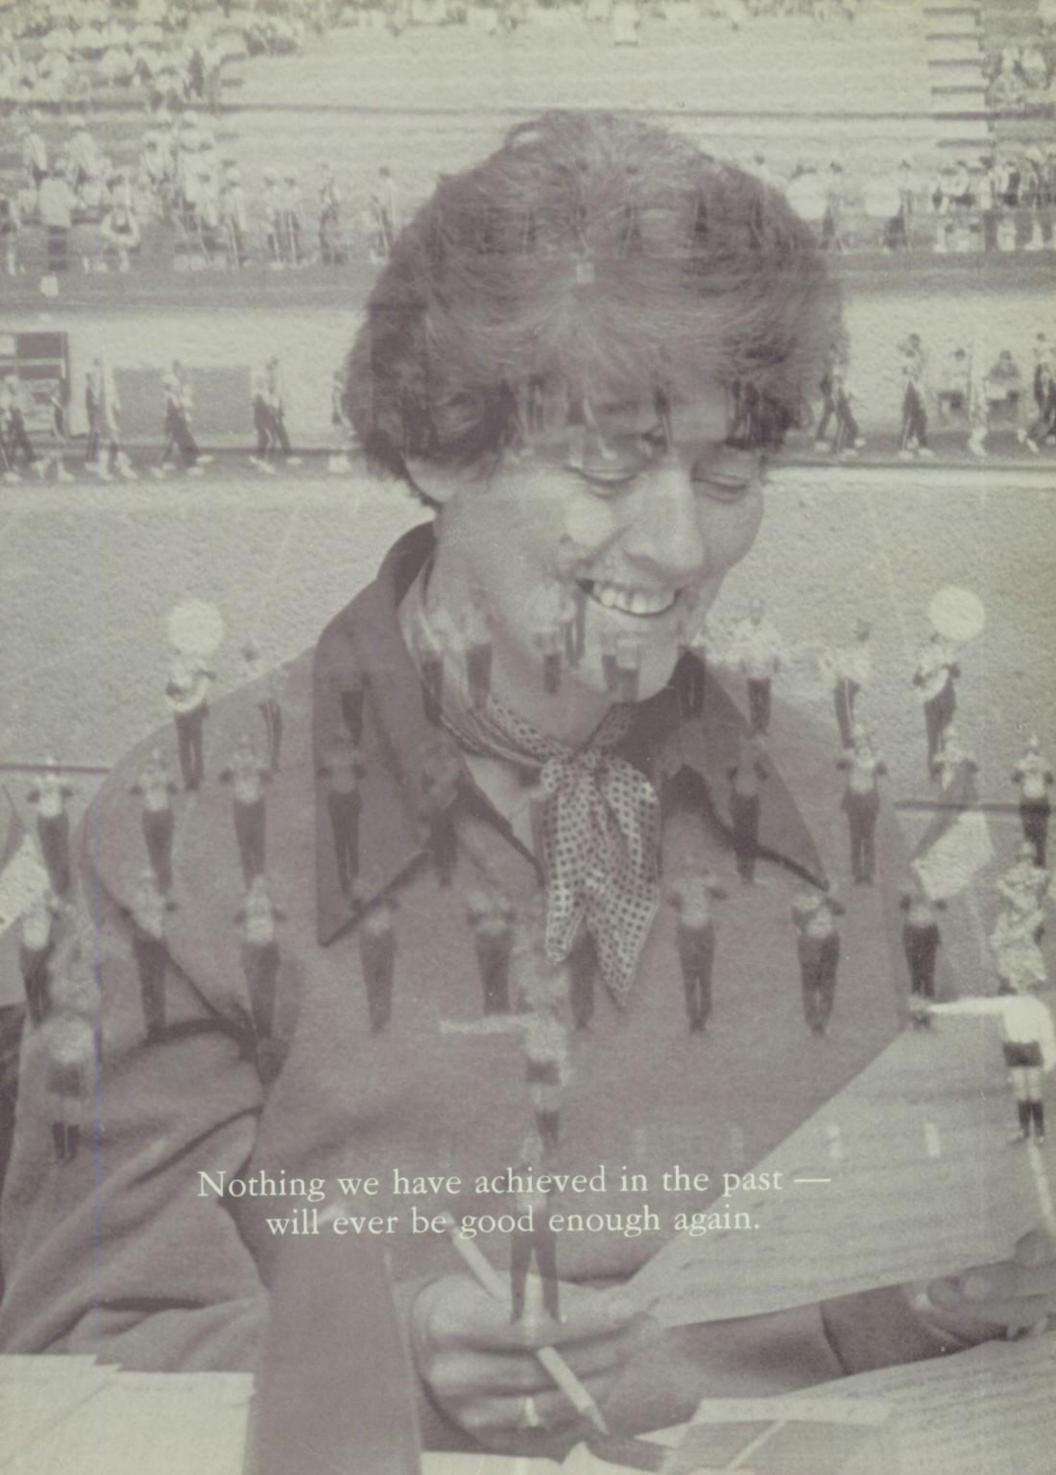

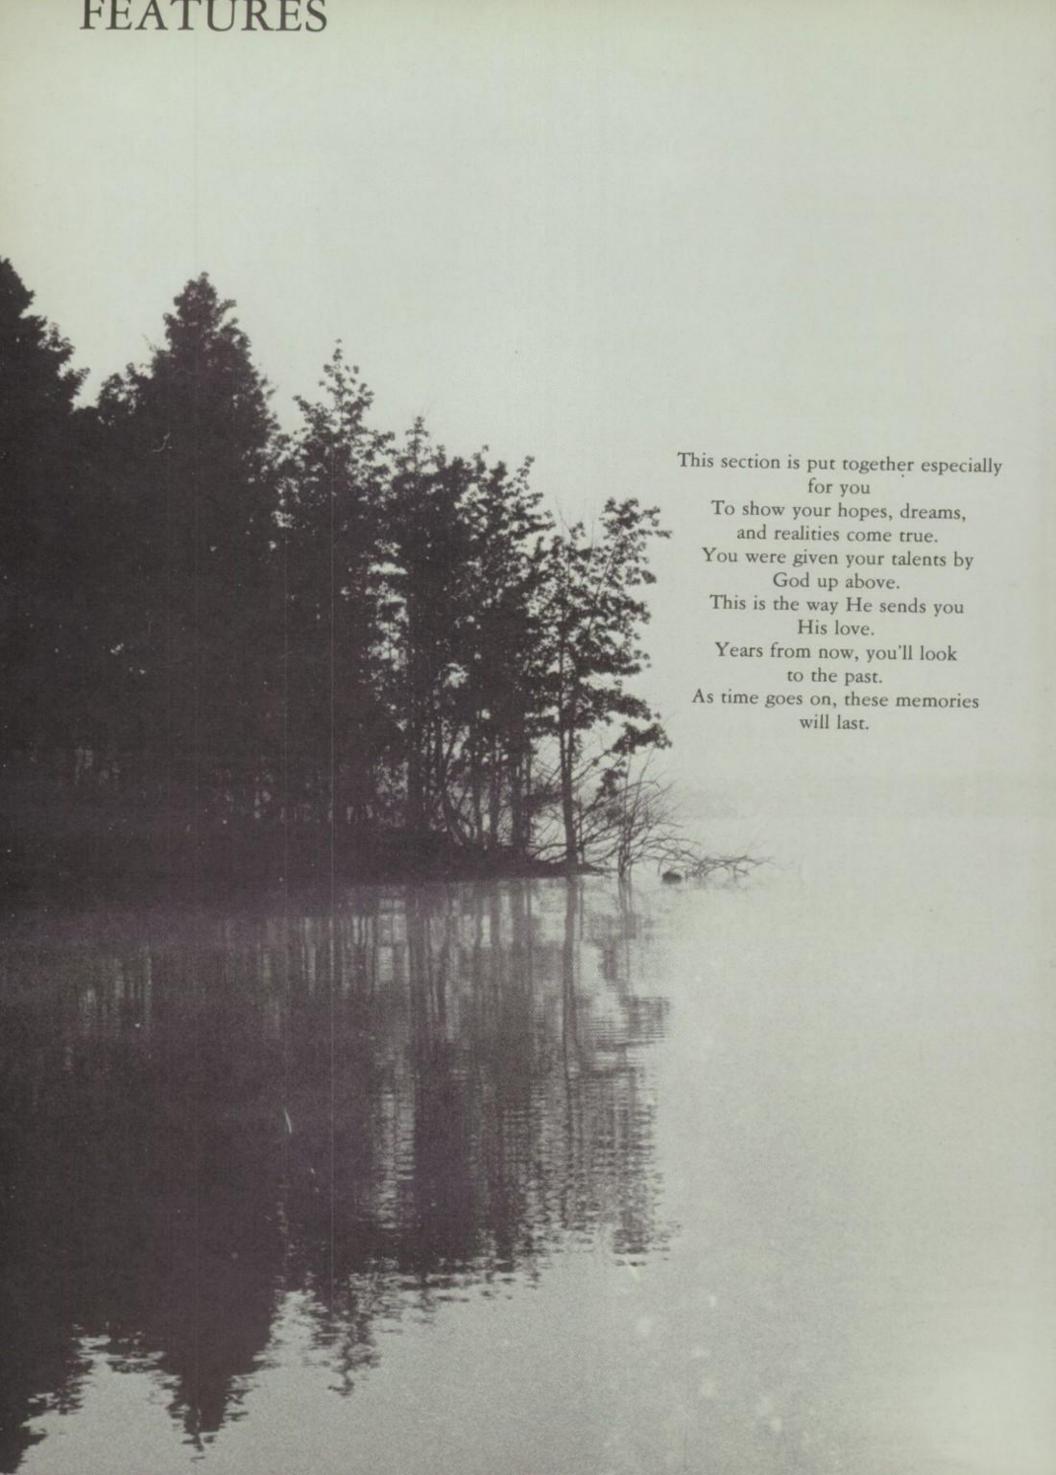

She came to us a stranger,
but in a few short months she
had made her way into our hearts
as a beautiful, talented person.
She gave many of us an instrument
we had never even seen before
and taught us how to play it.
In a few short years our band
became the pride of Randleman
and we owed it all to her.

This past spring she showed us something more important — the will to live. The strength to keep going when all the odds are against you. She showed us strength, courage, and a very strong faith in God.

It meant a lot to us, the seniors, to bring her home the first #1 rating our band had ever received. We brought home a #1 trophy but we already had a#1 band director. We love you, Miss Shipwash.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

The time came early, the season still warm — warm, like her smile and her eyes,
Dark was her hair like the night —
But dazzling like the shimmer of her crown — our queen . . .

A year of a big let down. Only being nine points from undefeated and two points from conference champs. We had to settle for second best, a team with no super hero's just a lot of great athletes that played like a team. A team with a winning attitude. For us seniors the year is over, but we left our mark on Randleman High School with a 7-3 mark our sophomore and an 8-2 mark our junior and senior years and tied for the title.

Until you put on that uniform and run out on the floor with your nerves tied in knots, you don't know what it's like to play basketball. It's probably the most gruelling of the sports. I have really enjoyed playing high school basketball. I only wish me last two seasons could have been as successful as the first, or more so.

Now that I look back, I can see that I got more out of it than just the enjoyment of playing. Just the priviledge of representation my school and being associated with the coaches, managers, and the other girls on the team has meant so much to me.

Track, the most individual sport in our school. Many may not have recognized it as a sport, but not any more. With a new coach, Randleman won its first track meet last year, which it had not done in the past five years. A new track having been built and no one from last year team, the whole team should be improved considerably. Track is no longer something to ready for football . . . it is a sport.

Track is more than just a sport. It takes the dedication of every participant to achieve personal goals so that the team as a whole can advance. A desire to win must also be present. I believe our team put these things together against almost impossible odds and had a great time doing it!

CLASS PROPHECY

We always knew the Class of '79 would be a success, here are just a few big successes.

Scott Brown is teaching speech therapy at Wake Forest.

Vicki Taylor married Mr. Ed.

Susan Runyon is now touring France with her drums. She calls herself Boom-Boom.

Mike Huffman went on to play Pro Basketball for the New York Rockets. I know there's no such team, and so do you, but don't tell Mike.

Wendy Potter went on to become editor for THE L.A. TIMES. Last week it went bankrupt.

Joel Brown is head photographer for PLAYBOY.

Stacy Farlow is now the Driver's Education teacher in place of Mr. Kirkman.

Steve South took the place of Mrs. Brenda Cox who is expecting her fifteenth child.

John Cheek went on to defeat G-I Joe with Kung-Fu Grip.

Vann Hilliard — lost at sea.

Brenda Russell has just purchased the van from the movie "Up In Smoke". Last seen heading south.

Diane Hilliard went on to win beauty pageant after beauty pageant. Last week she won Miss Worthville.

Anne Lineberry went on to become manager for the New York Yankees.

Perry Brown is now growing a beard full-time.

Keith Gregory sells penny loafers in Asheboro.

Wanda Cheek was voted most valuable on Siberia's Volleyball Team.

Connie Anderson finally got over KISS. She's got her own group called SMOOCH.

Ricky Cockman went into show business. He's the understudy for Lassie.

Brent Spencer was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame for his many devoted years to the Dallas Cowboys.

Sharon Watson became widely known as a model. Just last week she was the centerfold for FIELD AND STREAM.

These few people are just an example of how far the class of '79 has gone. If you thought we were crazy in school you should see us As Time Goes On.

In Memory of Elizabeth Hylton

To some, just a teacher,
To most, a friend.
She taught us more than math and English
She taught us how to live and love.
Her heart was always open to anyone who needed her,
If we all, could only be like her.

Now she is gone and will be missed by all,
But we remember her with love and cheer.
Not with tears, because that's how she would have wanted it.
Her smile, her kindness, and her love will always be with us.
Things would be so different,
If we all could only be like her.

Remember us with smiles and laughter,
For that is how we'll remember you.
If you can only remember us with tears,
Then don't remember us at all.

The sunset is brightest before the darkness overshadows,

As the candle is brightest before it goes out.

As the day slips into darkness;

Our lives slip into tomorrow.

The Annual Staff would like to thank everyone for their support which is reflected in these advertisements. Your continued patronage is deeply appreciated, for without it this book could not have been possible.

I guess I'm glad that this annual is finally finished but I can't help but feel a little sad. It means that the end of our four years is drawing closer. It's only a matter of time before we are out on our own with only ourselves to depend on. This applies not only to the seniors but to every student in this school. This annual represents everyone of you and is a lasting memory for all.

I hope everyone enjoys this annual as much as we, the annual staff, enjoyed putting it together. We had our ups and downs, as did every annual staff in the past, but we all benefited from the experience. Good luck to everyone, especially my staff. And thank you, Stephanie, for keeping most of my secrets about the book.

Wendy Potter Editor-In-Chief
